

RUBENSTEIN PUBLIC RELATIONS, INC.

September 12, 2008

CYGALLE APPEARANCE: Cygalle Healing Spa, which was opened during the spring in the resort of Casa de Campo in the Dominican Republic, set up shop backstage at Charlotte Ronson on Saturday morning to show off its organic face care line. The 40-item collection, which includes cleansers, toners, moisturizers, masks and serums, is priced from $16 to $67, and the products are formulated from plants and fruits that grow on the island. The spa, which was founded by Cygalle Dias, is also launching later this year a 25-item men's line that will include pre-shave oil, shaving cream, aftershave and foot care products priced from $15 to $45.